NINETEEN ARE DEAD.

Between Thirty and Forty Other Men May Have

MET A SIMILAR FATE

Heartrending Scenes Are Witnessed In the Vicinity of West Fork Mine and Rescuers Are Diligently at Work.

Pocahontas, Va., Oct. 5.—Nineteen known dead and from thirty to forty more men entombed and doubtless all dead, was the situation up to Friday morning at the West Fork mines of the Pocahontas Colliers company, where the explosion occurred Wednesday afternoon.

Bodies recovered from the mine was due to heroic work of a band of thirty-five men constituting a rescue party, that worked incessantly through the hours of the night and day.

It was not until 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening that the rescuers reached a point nearest Paul Entry, where the explosion occurred. The work of rescue was very slow, as the conditions confronting the party were difficult to surmount.

The authorities anticipated the fearful extent of the casualty by ordering a carload of coffins and burial supplies, which are now on their way.

Superintendent Leckie of the mine, who entered the mine as one of the rescuing party, had a narrow escape from death. He was overcome by the fumes and had to be carried out. Edward Jones, the inside mine foreman, led the first rescue party, and when that party failed to return in a reasonable time, a second rescue party, under Superintendent Leckie followed.

John Oldham and Ed Brown were overcome by gas, and died, and Leckie barely escaped with his life. Then the third party was formed and continued the work.

Meantime the first party had reached another entrance to the mine in safety, and sent word over the mountain announcing the fact. All this time the work of bratticing the mine, necessary for carrying on the work of rescue, was being effectually carried on. Some confusion was caused in the determination of the exact number entombed by the fact that when the explosion occurred the exchange of shifts was in progress, added to which was the fact that a number of the men escaped from the Tug Fork entrance.

The scenes around the mine were pitiful. Relatives and friends gathered in groups at the entries and elsewhere, awaiting tidings of the victims, and gave vent to their grief as the bodies, one by one, were brought out.

T. B. Cook, one of the victims, whose body was found within 300 feet of the outside of the mine, was the only survivor of the big explosion in the Pocahontas mine in 1884.

Parties coming to work from Tug River, on the West Virginia side of the mine, did not know there had been any trouble until they ran into some bodies on the tracks and some dead mules with a man pinned between them.

While the force of the explosion was terrific, the foreman at the offices of the mines did not know there had been any trouble until the men and mules failed to come out at the time for quitting work.

CUBAN INTERVENTION.

Secretary of State Makes Public all the Correspondence.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Secretary Root has made public the correspondence leading up to the intervention in Cuba. The correspondence took place between Consul General Steinhardt at Havana and Acting Secretary Bacon of the state department.

An important feature developed in the dispatches was that intervention was asked by the Cuban government as early as Sept. 8, and that as long ago as Sept. 14 President Palma had determined to resign as president of the republic, and that the vice president and cabinet ministers had also determined to no longer continue in office. It is also shown that intervention was planned by the United States had long been planned by the Palma government, and was communicated to the state department in a letter by Consul Steinhardt as early as Sept. 5.

LAYING DOWN ARMS.

General Funston Reports That This Is Fast Being Done.

Havana, Oct. 5.—Brigadier General Funston received a telegram Thursday morning from all members of the disarmament committee at various parts of the island reporting that all is quiet and that the laying down of arms was progressing rapidly.

Commissioners in Santa Clara reported the recovery of a quantity of dynamite and electrical apparatus stolen from the Balquiri Iron company, an American concern.

General Funston visited General Asbert, insurgent commander in Havana province, in the vicinity of Guin, and arranged for disarming of his forces.

SHREVEPORT'S NEW MAYOR.

Shreveport, Oct. 5.—In one of the closest municipal elections ever held here Ernest R. Bernstein defeated Dr. S. A. Dickson for mayor by a majority of thirty-six votes. The total was: Bernstein, 687; Dickson, 651.

STRUCK BY TORNADO

Sweeps Over Crescent City, Doing Much Damage.

HOUSES DEMOLISHED

At Ponchatoula, Fifty Miles From New Orleans, There Were Four People Killed and a Number Injured.

New Orleans, Oct. 5.—A tornado at 8 o'clock Friday morning passed diagonally across the residence portion of the city, taking off roofs, tearing down fences and doing other damage. The tornado crossed the Mississippi river about Jena street, in the uptown district, and cut across to the rear of the Third ward, one side of which is bounded by Canal street. The air was filled with flying planks and other debris. Great excitement was caused in this district. The tornado crossed Canal street. It was preceded by a thunderstorm and rain. Along its whole path of three miles or more damage was done. Telephone and telegraph poles were prostrated and communication with many parts of the city rendered impossible. Debris strewn along its track put the Peters Avenue Street Railway company lines temporarily out of business. At Toledano and Saratoga streets a market in process of construction was leveled. Five new residences in that neighborhood were razed. A negro in Douglas square was picked up bodily and blown away. Some damage was done to the gasworks, in the Third ward. Much damage was done the oil mill in the same neighborhood. A warehouse at Liberty and Poydras streets was blown down. A heavy iron car there was turned upside down.

Further reports of the tornado indicate that a number of homes in different parts of the city were blown down. At First and Magnolia streets a house was demolished and a woman and child severely hurt. A factory at Erato and Magnolia streets also was badly damaged.

A special from Hammond, La., on the Illinois Central railway, about fifty miles from New Orleans says that a tornado struck Ponchatoula, near there, Friday morning, killing four people, injuring a number and doing great property damage.

The Jai Alai skating rink, at Milam and Carondelet streets, was blown to pieces, and debris from it scattered in every direction.

There were at least three separate tornadoes in the vicinity of New Orleans, including that which struck that city. Verified loss of life from these disturbances up to noon Friday was one man killed.

A peculiar feature of the disturbance in this city was the fact that a few persons within half a mile of tornado's path knew there had been a storm.

STRONG AND EXCITED.

New High Level For the Season Was the Result.

New York, Oct. 5.—The cotton market opened strong and excited Friday at an advance of 17 to 36 points, which carried prices to the new high level for the season as the result of much higher Liverpool cables than expected, the uncovering of stop loss orders on the short side and broadening of speculative demand. Wet weather in the south and reports of squeeze of October shorts were bull factors. There was a tremendous realizing on advance, but offerings were taken up and prices held an initial advance, with May selling at 11 cents. One of the features was an advance of 77 points for December contracts in New Orleans.

ADVANCED SHARPLY.

New Orleans, Oct. 5.—The cotton market advanced sharply upon news of a tornado in this city. December, which closed at 10.11, went to 11.24, while January rose from 10.20 to the same price. Later December fell to 10.92 and January to 11.02.

BANK OF ISSUE.

Elther This or Enlarging the Note Privilege Favored.

New York, Oct. 5.—Elther a central bank of issue, to be established and controlled by the government, or a simple measure enlarging the present note issue privilege of national banks in such a manner that their right of issue shall not vary with the ownership of United States bonds are the methods favored by the special currency committee appointed by the New York Chamber of Commerce last March to inquire into the condition of the currency, and suggest desirable changes. The report was submitted at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce.

COWARDLY REVENGE.

Soldiers Kill Two Prisoners Because Comrades Sought Their Rescue. Warsaw, Oct. 5.—A military patrol, which was conducting two revolutionists to jail here, was attacked by revolutionists, who attempted to rescue the men in custody. The soldiers promptly killed both prisoners.

APPEALS TO DEMOCRATS.

Chairman Carden Urges That Bailey
Matter Be Dropped.

Dallas, Oct. 5.—In an address to the Democrats of the state Hon. George A.
Carden, chairman of the executive committee, urges that in view of the absence of any general endorsement by the Democrats of the state of the charges preferred against Senator J.
W. Bailey further agitation be not indulged in, deeming it conducive to strife in the party's ranks. The chairman says the charges were fully known before the primary, that Senator Bailey was chosen without opposition and action of primaries was endorsed by the state convention. The Democrats are further reminded that for the first time in Texas a senatorial nomination was made in a general primary, and Mr. Carden says it would be peculiarly unfortunate if at this time any serious effort was made to disregard this nomination.

SHOT HIMSELF IN NECK.

One Side Torn Off by Load Entering the Windpipe.

Hillsboro, Tex., Oct. 5.—William D.
Duncan of Massey, sixteen miles southeast of here, one of the best known and most prosperous farmers of this county, committed suicide by shooting himself in the neck with a shotgun at his gin near his residence. He had suffered considerably the past year with stomach trouble. No other cause for the act is known. The charge from the gun entered the right side of the windpipe and tore all of one side of the neck off. He had lived in this county thirty years. He leaves a widow and five children.

First Snow of Season.

HITCH OCCURS.

Division of Time Was the Cause of the Contention.

Houston, Oct. 5.—A hitch has occurred in the Bailey-Crane debate. The committees representing the respective speakers failed to agree on the division of time and on which man should open and close. Positive announcement was made that Hon. M.
Crane would speak at the Auditorium.
It was expected that Senator Bailey would use some other hall. The committee representing Senator Bailey positively declines to allow Mr. Crane to open and close the meeting.

SUDDEN INSANITY.

Man From Missouri Wandered Aimlessly at Fort Worth.

Fort Worth, Oct. 5.—D. N. Davis, a well known citizen of Lincoln, Mo., became suddenly insane on the streets Friday and was taken in charge by the authorities. When found he was wandering aimlessly around. Word was sent to his relatives. It was learned that Davis is a financier and leading citizen of Lincoln.

He will be held until the arrival of friends and taken back home.

MURDER MYSTERY.

Nude Body of Boy Had a Dozen Ghastly Wounds.
Amarillo, Tex., Oct. 5.—The body of an unknown boy was found at the spur of the Choctaw tracks. The body was entirely nude. He had a dozen ghastly wounds inflicted on the back and left side of the head. His forehead and face were badly hacked. The face and body were fearfully hacked. The wounds seem to have been inflicted with a hatchet. He had evidently been in the condition in which he was found for several hours, as the wounds had become fetid and his back was sunburned. He was about five feet four inches tall.

WILL APPEAL.

Dates For Executions In Mexico Are Never Announced.

El Paso, Oct. 5.—Richardson, Mason and Harle, the three Americans sentenced to be shot at Chihuahua for murdering victims to collect life insurance, will appeal to President Diaz for executive clemency, and will be given time to hear from him. The date for their execution is not known.

Executions in Mexico are always kept secret, no date being announced.
The officer commanding the guard receives a sealed envelope, to be opened at a certain date, and in this envelope he finds directions as to executions of the prisoners named within.

SHOWMAN SLAIN.

Heart and Stomach.

Fritz, tent pole boss with Campbell
Bros. show, was shot twice and killed.
Two other employees of the show state that a stranger stepped up to Fritz in the rear of the big tent, and that there was an altercation of words, and that Fritz pushed the stranger off and ordered him to go to the front entrance, and that the stranger turned and fired two shots, both taking effect, one through the heart and one in the stomach. Fritz's home was in Memphis, Tenn.

IN HARDY'S FAVOR.

His Name Goes On TICK as Democrat Nominee For Congress.

Corsicana, Oct. 5.—Judge Cobb, before whom was heard the injunction proceedings in the Mays-Hardy litigation over the Democratic congressional nomination, decided that District Judge Scott, who granted a temporary injunction for Richard Mays, had no

Receiving Compensation.

Sherman, Oct. 5.—A nominee on the county Republican ticket offered, if elected, to serve without pay. The matter was referred to the attorney general's department. Assistant Attorney General Pollard holds that compensation must be accepted, and that a candidate making such an offer could not hold office, even, as in this case, he agreed to give his salary to charity.

AN AFTER DINNER SPEECH.

It was just at the close of the war. Friends of General Bedford Forrest gave him a banquet at Jackson, Tennessee, and many prominent men who had worn the grey were there. Music mingled with laughter as the hours glided by, and wine mingled with wit and humor around the banquet board. The merriment increased with the flow of fun and feeling from the lips of many an eloquent Southerner. Finally the moment came for Forrest to put to route his old friend, Landon C. Haynes, who had represented Tennessee in the Confederate Senate through the whole war and who believed that Forrest was the greatest cavalry general that ever valted into a saddle. The hero of many a battlefield rose and held up his glass amid his friends and admirers, and there was a twinkle in his eye as he said: "Here is to Landon C. Haynes, who hails from east Tennessee—that country sometimes called the God-forsaken." Haynes instantly leaped to his feet and said: "I plead guilty to the soft impeachment; I am an east Tennessean; I was born on the Watauga, which in the Indian vernacular means 'beautiful river,' and beautiful river it is; there I have stood in my childhood and looked down through its glassy waters and beheld a heaven below, and then looked up and beheld a heaven above, like two mirrors each reflecting in the other its moons and planets and trembling stars; and from its bank of ivy and hemlock, of laurel and pine, there stretches a vale back to the distant mountains, as beautiful and exquisite as any in Italy or Switzerland; there stands the great Roan, the great Black and the great Unaka mountains, among the tallest in North America, around whose dizzy heights the clouds gather of their own accord even on the brightest day; there I have seen the great storm spirit go and take his evening nap in his pavillion of darkness and of clouds; then I have seen him aroused at midnight and like a giant refreshed by slumber, awake the tempest and let loose the red lightnings that shot along the mountain tops for a thousand miles, swifter than an eagle's flight to heaven; then I have seen them get up and dance like angels of light in the bosom of the cloud, to the music of that grand organ of nature whose keys seemed to have been touched by the fingers of divinity in the halls of eternity that resounded in thunder tones through the universe; then I have seen the darkness drift away beyond the western horizon and the morning get up like a queen from her saffron bed and come forth from her palace in the sun and stand tiptoe on the misty mountain tops, and while old night fled from before her shining face to his hiding place at the pole, she lighted with a smile the green vale and beautiful river where I was born and played in my childhood. Oh, beautiful land of the mountains with thy sun painted cliffs, how can I ever forget thee!"—Ex.

SHOW MUSIC.

An advance announcement says: The most entertaining feature in an otherwise perfect and most praiseworthy show program is the continuous excellent melody throughout the entire performance by the big Sells-Floto show band of thirty soloists, under the able and competent conductorship of Fred Tewel, a past master of incidental circus music. He is also a composer of note, and, at each and every exhibition, while the audience is being seated, this famous coterie of instrumentalists will be heard in a concert program of half an hour's duration that can not be surpassed for exquisite and harmonious melody. This musical feature is quite in keeping with the strong circus acts that follow.

In the program proper this season will be seen such famous artists as the "Girl in Red," a premier equestrienne who is world famous, in a Parisian riding act unequalled for skill and daring. A big feature act, one of the best on the program, is the three Ty Bells. The ladies of this group are direct from foreign shores and were engaged by the Sells-Floto Shows to illustrate new and intricate acrobatic bicycle maneuvers, and the performance is well worth seeing.

The big show comes to Bryan Thursday, October 11.

HIS IS THE GREAT CLOTHING EVENT OF THE YEAR--OUR ADVANCE SHOWING OF the new Fall and Winter models. As every one knows who is at all posted on the subject, the new styles are very largely originated by the Schloss designers and later copied by others. The present season is a good illustration. Now that our Fall stock is here, we can show you new advance models that will not be generally offered for at least two or three months.

THE NEW "HARVARD" SACK

Fashions don't come from London and Paris any more---most of them are brought out at the great universities like Harvard, Yale, Princeton and other famous institutions. Here is one of the best of the new designs for Fall, called the "Harvard" because the model came from there, well shown in the illustration. You'll find it just as correct for business wear in New York or San Francisco as it is on the Harvard campus. This is only one of our "University" Models. Ask to see them. Don't confuse the design with the ordinary "straight fronts" that you may see. The similarity ends there. Little differences of line and shape and proportion, impossible to describe, give the "Harvard" Suit an unusual character and smartness specially brought out by the fine tailoring.

To see these splendid garments. Not only are you certain of the new style and the right style, but the quality, fit and incomparable workmanship of these garments are thoroughly exclusive characteristics. Furthermore we have very few duplicates and our best will be quickly taken. See them now; we will reserve your selection until later, if you so desire.

THE MORNING EAGLE

Entered at the Postoffice as second class mail matter.

BY CARNES & WALLACE

BRYAN, TEXAS, OCTOBER 6.

Judge Cobb has commanded Richard Mays to step down and out. Mays has an injunction of his own, however, and may insist on being shown.

Pity that asbestos mine near Llano wasn't developed in time to furnish Houston with enough of its product to line the interior of the Auditorium for the Bailey-Grane debate.

The state department at Washington gives out information that President Palma was anxious to turn the hot end of the Cuban situation over to your Uncle Samuel, and "made a holler" for American warships a month ago.

Judge Hardy's injunction has been amended with another sweeping restraining order from Judge Cobb at Corsicana, which is in direct opposition to the order issued some time since by Judge J. C. Scott of Franklin. The congressional muddle thickens and it is needless to say the voters of the district are growing weary, very weary.

The Eagle has received a copy of the big industrial edition of the Spartanburg, S. C., Journal. The paper is splendidly gotten up, and to us, the most impressive thing about it is the space and attention devoted to good roads. Two large pages are devoted to this subject with accompanying half tone pictures of road-building, completed roads and all kinds of road-working machinery. Texas needs to wake up on this subject and get in line with the improvements going on elsewhere.

We learn that work on the new H. & T. C. railroad depot near Concord, this county, about 82 miles distant from Centerville, was commenced last Friday week, Sept. 21st. It is said to be the intention of the company to have a commodious storage department, and which structure will bear the name of Robbins Depot. It will be the nearest and most accessible to Centerville. Road improvement is being determined upon and some assistance will be desired to do so, as the railroad company have a good deal of interest to promote in aiding the necessary work to be done for the better business facilities of the company as well as Centerville.—Centerville Democrat.

Creeping Salt.

Here is something in the course of natural phenomena that will interest and instruct the little folk if they look into it curiously: Into a tumbler half full of water dissolve just as much common table salt as can be held in solution. Let it stand for a few days and see how the salt creeps out of the water, up the inside of the glass and down the outside—just like a thing of life trying to escape from its environment. And when all the salt is apparently out of prison the water remains as salty as before! It is a pretty demonstration.

Lasting.

"This butter seems strong," said the young husband at their first breakfast at home.

"Yes," she answered. "I talked to the market man about that, and he said it was economy in the end never to buy weak butter. He said that even though this might cost a little more people could get along with less of it, and it would last longer."

A Criterion of Age.

Birmingham—Your daughter is to marry a young man named Hill, I believe? Manchester—Yes. He belongs to one of the very oldest families in the country. Birmingham—I didn't know that he came from a particularly old family. Manchester—Oh, yes. You often hear people use the expression, "As old as the Hills."

MILLER EXPIRED.

Horses Ran Over Him, Skull Fractured and Tongue Bitten.

Louisville, Oct. 5.—Jockey Miller, who had the mount on Dresden in the second race, fell and several horses ran over him. His skull was fractured and he bit his tongue in half. He is in a local hospital in a dangerous condition. It was his first mount since he was suspended at Douglas Park. Miller died.

FIVE FATALITIES.

Twenty Other Persons Sustained Injuries Owing to Collision.

Lansingburg, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Five passengers were killed outright and a score were injured in a rear end collision between a regular passenger train and a military special on the Boston and Maine railroad directly in front of the Lansingburg depot about 5 o'clock Thursday.

The collision took place on a heavy grade and sharp curve. Without apparently any warning the special came thundering along with eighteen cars and crashed into the passenger train, smashing the last two cars, which were Pullmans, like egg shells. Both these cars were swept from the track and rolled down the embankment. The engine of the special kept on for a dozen yards and then turned turtle, plowing into the ground, and the car behind became telescoped by the tender.

The special was drawing four troops of the Fourteenth cavalry from Fort Ethan Allen to Newport News, where they were to embark for Cuba. The soldiers quickly got to work to rescue the passengers.

GREATLY EXAGGERATED.

Governor of Alabama Criticised For Ordering Troops to Mobile.

Mobile, Oct. 5.—Reports sent out from Mobile about riots because of the assault upon a young white girl by a negro have been greatly exaggerated.

The calling of troops from outside points was considered uncalled for, and the governor is being criticised.

All is quiet. Prominent negroes held a mass meeting and pledged themselves if any future trouble occurs they will take summary action themselves against negroes committing crimes on white girls.

Sheriff Powers received instructions from Judge Semmes to proceed to Birmingham and bring back Will Thompson and Jim Robinson, the two negroes from Mobile, who are in jail there, charged with assaulting little white girls.

MORAN NOMINATED.

Bay State Democrats Head Ticket With Prohibitionists' Choice.

Boston, Oct. 5.—After endorsing W. J. Bryan and W. R. Hearst the Massachusetts state Democratic convention nominated by acclamation John B. Moran, district attorney for Suffolk county, who is already the nominee of the Prohibition party and Independence league.

BIG BLAZE.

Oklahoma City Has a Fire Doing Considerable Damage.

Oklahoma City, Oct. 5.—There was a $25,000 fire here Thursday afternoon. Losses are as follows: St. Louis Well Machinery company, Johnston Furniture company, Wright Poultry company, Vegard Plumbing Supply company.

SHOT HORSE, SAVED CHILD.

Ardmore, Oct. 5.—In order to save from injury W. A. Watts' little child, who was in a runaway, Will Rodgers shot and killed the frightened animal. The street was packed with people waiting for a circus parade when the runaway horse attached to a buggy came tearing up Main street.

FIVE BODIES FOUND.

Mobile, Oct. 5.—Five bodies have been recovered on the south shore as the result of the great storm of last Thursday. One was identified as that of Captain John Wrotten and another as William Roseteiner. The work of relief is going on rapidly, and the destitute are being well provided for.

ELEVEN SHOTS EXCHANGED.

Tulsa, I. T., Oct. 5.—William Jones and Nelson Henry, negroes, fought a pistol duel in East Tulsa Thursday. Henry was shot in the groin. His condition is critical.

CHINESE LABOR.

Contracts For Work on Panama Canal Being Examined.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Officers of the Isthmian canal commission are busily engaged in examining proposals recently submitted by contracting firms for furnishing Chinese labor for work on the canal at Panama. Because of the peculiar conditions surrounding the importation and employment of aliens in this work, complicated in part by the adjustment of some international features which probably will arise, several weeks must necessarily elapse before any conclusions are reached and contracts awarded.

Some doubt is expressed whether the contracts will be able to carry out contracts which may be awarded for supplying coolie labor. Preferably on account of climatic conditions in Isthmian commission desires that any laborers sent to the isthmus shall come from the southern provinces of China.

Reports received at the Chinese Legation show that not a single Chinese newspaper favors the emigration of Chinese to Panama as experiences of those who went there for the French Canal company are still fresh in the minds of the people. The Chinese were unable to withstand the conditions then existing, and it is said that about 75 per cent of those who went there died. Petitions from Chinese residents in Peru, San Francisco and at Panama had been sent to the government at Pekin asking that it refuse its sanction to any proposition proposing to permit contract laborers to go from China to Panama. Thus far, however, the Chinese authorities have remained entirely passive in the matter. The suggestion has been made that if the Chinese government interposes an objection to permit the departure of coolies for labor on the isthmus the contractors, as an alternative, may resort to the Philippine Islands or to the Straits Settlements, over which the Chinese government has no jurisdiction for laborers.

Any contracts for furnishing coolie labor which may be drawn by Isthmian canal commission will be, before being executed, be submitted to the state department for inspection with a view of avoiding any possibility of international complications.

UNITED ON UNO.

Georgia Gentleman and New York Young Lady Wedded.

New York, Oct. 5.—Russell F. Hopkins of Atlanta, Ga., and Miss Vera L. Siegrist of New York were married on board the yacht Uno, while the boat was anchored off Peekskill. The marriage, it is stated, was a runaway one, the relatives of the bride objecting to her marriage because of her youth.

Miss Siegrist is an attractive girl about seventeen years old. She is the granddaughter of Dr. J. J. Lawrence, a multi-millionaire. He was until a few years ago a resident of St. Louis. His mansion on Fifth avenue is one of the finest dwellings in the city. The Lawrences have no children and Miss Siegrist, who had made her home with them since the death of her mother, is sole heiress to his great wealth.

Russell F. Hopkins is a millionaire. He was recently appointed consul at Atlanta for Panama.

WEDS NURSE.

Miss Ruth A. Cole Marries a Multi-Millionaire.

New York, Oct. 5.—It has become known that Charles R. Halliwell, first vice president of the American Tobacco company, was married Tuesday to Miss Ruth A. Cole, a trained nurse, who attended him through a long illness a few months ago. Last year Mr. Halliwell became ill through overwork. He underwent an operation and afterward was put in the care of Miss Cole. She nursed him back to health and afterward he seems to have found that he could not do without her.

In the American Tobacco company Mr. Halliwell is second in importance only to James B. Duke. His wealth has been estimated at $20,000,000.

IS NOW SORRY.

Wants Editors to Come and Criticise the Play.

New York, Oct. 5.—A London dispatch to the Times states that Manager Bourchier of the Garrick Theater, who, when he produced "The Morals of Marcus," early in September, practically excluded the dramatic critics from the theater, has repented. He now writes to the editors of the London papers and humbly entreats them to allow criticisms of the play to appear in their columns. He says he asks this in justice to the author of the play and those cast in it. The chances are that the editors will retain their Bismarckian attitude toward Mr. Bourchier and let him continue to stew in his own juice.

ALL INVITED.

Washington, Oct. 5.—The executive board of the national encampment committee United States War Veterans extended a general invitation to all the soldiers in the southern states who served in the war with Spain to attend the national encampment, to be held here, beginning Oct. 8.

MY CITY

My city is the place where my home is founded; where my business is situated; where my vote is cast; where my children are educated; where my neighbors dwell, and where my life is chiefly lived. It is the home spot for me. My city has a right to my civic loyalty. It supports me and I must support it. My city wants my citizenship, not partisanship; friendliness, not selfishness; co-operation, not dissension; sympathy, not criticism; my intelligent support, not indifference. My city supplies me with law and order, trade, friends, education, morals, recreation and the rights of a free-born American. I should believe in my city and work for it.—Trade.

The Dallas Times-Herald says: "We knew something was missing from the late primaries. Pat O'Keefe didn't dance a jig over the results." Pat has gone the way of the vanquished in Dallas county. He was a spectacular figure and danced everywhere while the bands were playing the jazz of political victory. We understand he went on the night of July 22. It was not as Alexander wept for he had conquered nothing—he had lost all. Dallas county along in the 90's of the last century used to have another unique figure—Col. Mark Ellison of Mesquite. His whiskers were three feet long and he had a peculiar warwhoop and when Charles Culberson was nominated for governor in 1894 he pulled a spectacular stunt as Jno. H. Reagan and S. W. T. Lanham went down. He did the same thing in 1890 when James S. Hogg defeated Gustave Cook at San Antonio and in '92 when Hogg defeated George Warwick at Houston. Mark and Pat were characters in their day. But victory does not always come to the same place. The best dancer and the fastest horse will finally be beaten. It is the inevitable—it is destiny.

To the question: "When is a man a Mason?" John Fort Newton replies: "When he can look out over the rivers, the hills and the far horizon with a profound sense of his own littleness in the vast scheme of things and yet have faith, hope and courage which is the root of every virtue. When he knows that deep down in his heart, every man is as noble, as vile, as divine, as lovely, as himself; and seeks to know, to forgive and love his fellowman. When he knows how to sympathize with men in their sorrows, yea even in their sins, knowing that each man fights a hard fight against many odds. When he has learned how to make friends and keep them; and above all to keep friends with himself. When he loves flowers, can hunt the birds without a gun; and feels the thrill of an old forgotten joy when he hears the laughter of a little child. When he can't be happier and high-minded amid the drudgeries of life. When star-trown trees and the glint of sunshines on flowing waters subdue like the thoughts on much loved and long dead; when no voice of distress reaches his ears in vain and no hand seeks his aid without response. When he finds good, every faith that helps any man lay hold on divine things; and sees majesty, meaning in life whatever the name of that faith may be. When he can look into a wayside puddle and see something beyond the mud, forlorn fellow mortal and see something beyond sin. When he knows how to pray; how to love; how to hope. When he has kept faith with himself; with his fellow man; with his God; in his hand a sword of evil, in his heart a bit of song; glad to live and not afraid to die. Such a man has found the only real secret of victory and the one it is trying to win the world."

TEXAS DOG RECEIVES GREAT ATTENTION

(By Associated Press.)

Austin, Texas, Aug. 2.—If a dog "prevails in attention and glory, then verily" famous bulldog at the University of Texas, should be overflowed with pride and content. "Pig" is let loose daily by L. T. Belmont, athletic director of the University. Go-haunts the Univ for his meals. Pig quite active in all campus. He is leading the band on all occasions, barking all the while, and it's always present at student gathering. He goes to classes as regularly as any student, his courses being elected by the class-rooms offering the coolest sleeping spots. The campus is his domain and kingdom, and woe to the dog who trespasses upon it. He is a docile animal with students and faculty members but fierce with intruding dog brothers.

"Pig" was named for the famous "Pig" Dittmar, University of Texas football player mentioned by Walter Camp as All-American material. Dittmar played the four years ending in 1916. Pig, the dog, still roams the campus at will and probably continues to do so the rest of his natural life. He is now as much of a landmark at the University as the main building.

FERGUSON OPENED SECOND SENATORIAL RACE AT WAXAHACHIE

Waxahachie, Texas, Aug. 2.—James E. Ferguson, former governor of Texas and second high candidate in the democratic primary for United States senator, delivered here Tuesday evening his first speech of the run-off primary. For the most part Mr. Ferguson did not enunciate any new views other than those he offered in the first primary campaign although devoting some time in discussing his opponent Earle B. Mayfield, and his, Ferguson's well known stand on the Ku Klux Klan question. Ferguson spoke in part as follows:

Ferguson Raises Klan Issue

"The democrats of Texas went to the polls on July 22, and expressed their choice for United States senator. An inspection of the returns shows that there was such disagreement of opinion as will necessitate a further expression from the people in order that a majority can say who will be the next Senator from Texas. Under the rules of the primary four candidates have been eliminated from the race, and the contest is now narrowed down to myself and the Honorable Earle B. Mayfield the high Muckie-Muck of the Ku Klux Klan of Texas. He is running by consent of the king wizard from Atlanta, Georgia. I am running by consent of Farmer Jim from Temple, Texas.

"I am not unmindful of the strength of the opposition. I entered this campaign under, perhaps, the most peculiar conditions that ever surrounded any man who sought high office. As a result of trials, troubles and tribulations lasting more than six years I found myself at the beginning of this year almost without purse or script. I gave up my Bell county farm of 1267 acres to pay the $156,000 that they said I got from the kaiser and the brewers. I gave up my bank to pay the depositors in full rather than have their interests jeopardized by official persecution, the most cruel that had ever befallen any man. I gave up my shorthorn cattle, near and dear to my heart, to satisfy the demand of money lenders and tax grabbers, and it will perhaps be only a few months that in line with the thousands of other cowmen in Texas to satisfy the greed of those who still pursue me, that I must give up my little ranch in Bosque county, and the last hoof of my herd must go to satisfy those who have said that I shall not prosper.

Discusses Klan Issue

"My friends, this is why I am opposed to the Ku Klux Klan and their crown prince candidate for the senate, Earle B. Mayfield. It is not from hearsay that I charge that this is the purpose of the Ku Klux Klan, but it is from the lips of their own prominent members who have begged me to join them that I make the charge that the effect of their property is to destroy the religious liberty of the country. The idea of appealing to the prejudice of men. You ask me why I make this statement, you ask for proof? I realize the difficulty, when men hide their faces and move in the dark hours of night and meet in the secluded spots of the country, to identify and point out the character of the membership. Yes, I frankly admit there are many good people in the Ku Klux Klan, but there have also been many other good people who in some time of their lives, have been in bad company; and it is now time for them to wash their hands of the whole thing and come out into the sunlight of the day, and let the world see who they are. I charge Earle Mayfield is the candidate of the Ku Klux Klan. I charge that he is a member in sympathy with the purposes and plans of the politicians who are deceiving good men from the real purposes to seize this government for the benefit of greed and to crucify our people upon the altar of selfishness. I challenge Earle Mayfield here and now to deny my charge. He goes around this country, flaunting the American flag in our faces and proclaiming that he is a 100 per cent American. When did he get the right to set the standard of patriotism in this country?
